Two kids from Calicut. One shot at Indian rally history.

Abhimanyu Sajeevan (driver, IIT Bombay '17) and Vijay Anand (co-driver) finished P2 in the Junior INRC and P4 INRC3 overall in their debut season — and are now stepping up to the premier Indian National Rally Championship.

2026–27 TARGET

P1 INRC overall — or a podium every round.

THE DUO

Abhimanyu Sajeevan, 27 — IIT Bombay Mechanical Engineering '17, finance professional in Bengaluru. Trained by rally champion Fabid Ahmer (Sidewinder). One karting session in June 2024 turned into a national rally seat thirteen months later.

Vijay Anand, co-driver from the same city. Trained in co-driving by Raghuram S of Vision 4 Motorsports. The voice between Abhimanyu and every blind corner in India.

WHY NOW — WHY THIS CAR

01 NARRATIVE

Story journalists already write.

NRI kid → IIT → finance → national podium. Already featured by Malayala Manorama Group.

02 REACH

India's fastest-growing motorsport.

15× INRC viewership growth · 30M+ social views/event · 2M+ national TV.

03 GROUND FLOOR

Be in the origin story.

Sign before he wins — the brand is associated with his rise, not his arrival.

04 CREDIBILITY

Earned, not purchased.

IIT Bombay signals merit. Sponsors back talent + preparation, not a cheque.
