Two kids from Calicut. One shot at Indian rally history.

Abhimanyu Sajeevan (driver, IIT Bombay '17) and Vijay Anand (co-driver) finished P2 in the Junior INRC and P4 INRC3 overall in their debut season — and are now stepping up to the premier Indian National Rally Championship.

THE DUO

Abhimanyu Sajeevan, 27 — IIT Bombay Mechanical Engineering '17, finance professional in Bengaluru. Trained by rally champion Fabid Ahmer (Sidewinder). One karting session in June 2024 turned into a national rally seat thirteen months later.

Vijay Anand, co-driver from the same city. Trained in co-driving by Raghuram S of Vision 4 Motorsports. The voice between Abhimanyu and every blind corner in India.

THE TEAM BEHIND THE CAR

Garage Snap Racing — workshop, build & full-time service crew. Fabid Ahmer (Sidewinder, multi-title INRC) on the driver side. Raghuram S (Vision 4) on the co-driver side. Pit crew & spotters travel every round. New partners join an already-funded, already-staffed car.
